Who is the legal action against? If this is a bulk sale, this identifies the vendor. If it is a security agreement, the debtor's name goes here.	Who is initiating the legal action? If this were a bulk sale, the purchaser's name would appear here. If it is a security agreement, the creditor's name appears here.	This is Equifax's unique six-digit identification subject number. It has been applied to 2,000,000 Canadian businesses. It indicates that an Equifax report exists on this company. If "NF" appears, this indicates this item was not matched to an Equifax credit report.	This is the court system's internal file number that would help you obtain a copy of the actual document from which this information was extracted.
