

Employment and Income Verifications

Rapid. Authentic. Complete.

Your Complete Verification Solution.

Verifying an individual's employment and income takes time. It takes time to track down his or her employer; time to contact the employer and wait for a response to ensure the information is valid; time you could use to obtain the rest of the information needed to complete the application. You need a solution to validate employment and income that moves just as fast as your industry and provides you with verifications that are authentic and current. You need The Work Number®.

What is The Work Number?

The Work Number is your single source to validate employment and income. With one click, you'll be connected to the fastest, most comprehensive solution in the United States, reducing your verification process to hours, even seconds. As a client, you receive a consumer's employment information, which comes direct from their employer each pay period, helping you obtain the vital information needed to make decisions.

Helping Your Business.

- Mitigate risk
- Reduce expenses
- Improve accuracy
- Lessen fraud

Authentic Records in Record Time.

To provide you with the most comprehensive solution, The Work Number delivers the information you need with rapid results and complete coverage.

Rapid Results

Simply log in to your account and enter the consumer information you need to verify – The Work Number will immediately search for your request from over 165 million employment records. In fact, 30% of the U.S. workforce can be validated instantly, and we're continually adding new records each day. Most importantly, all data comes direct from employers, so verifications are authentic and current.

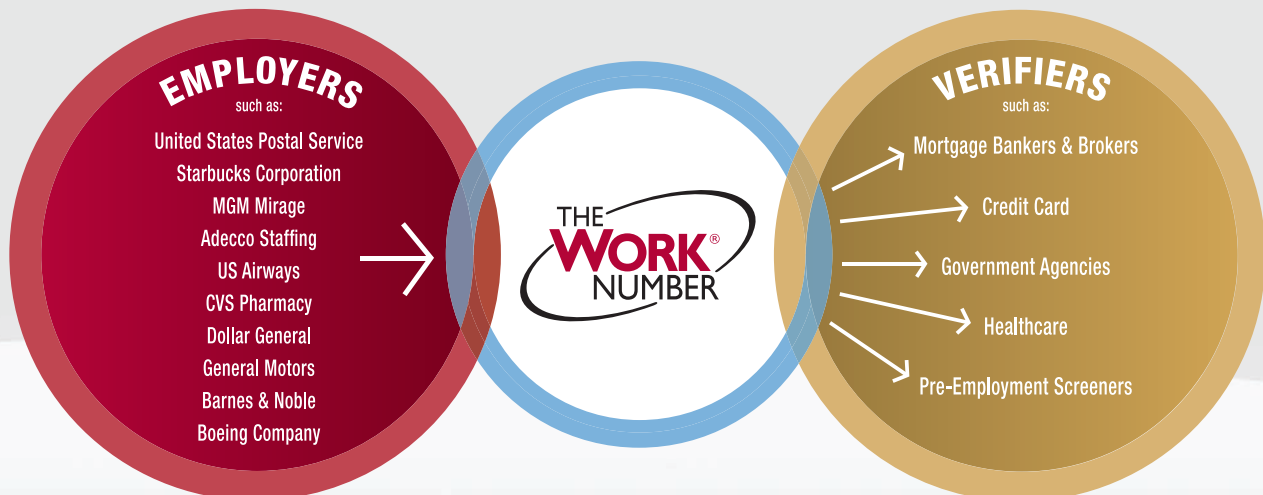

Complete Coverage

If a consumer's data is not instantly available, The Work Number will connect with their employer and obtain a verification, allowing you to considerably reduce your time and labor costs. The result: 60% of verifications are completed within one business day and 87% are completed within five!

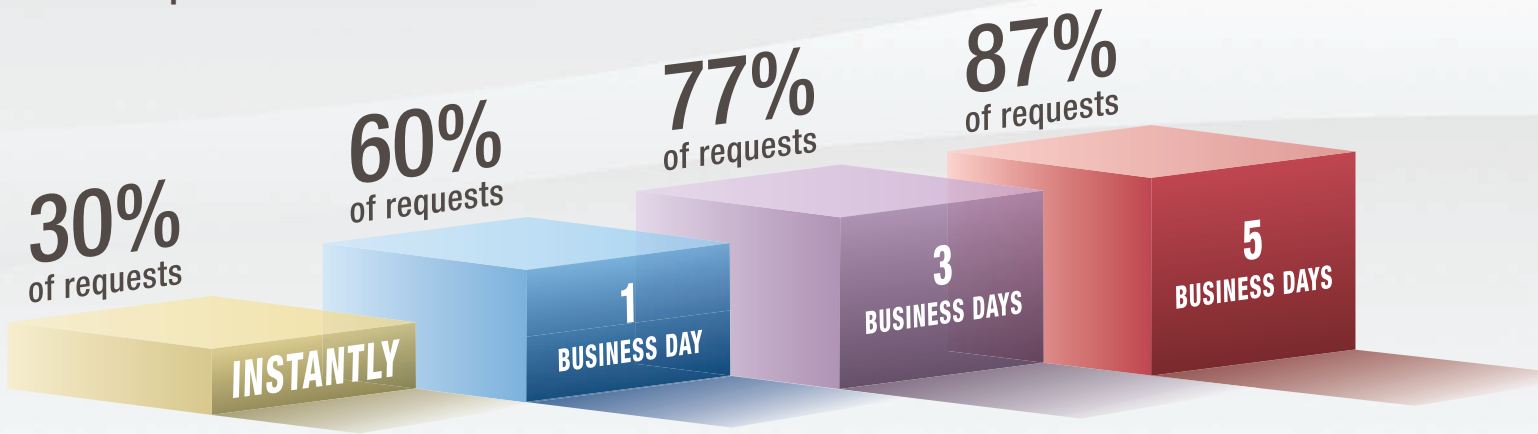

Employer-Direct Data.

Over 1,750 employers, from Fortune 500 corporations to regional businesses to government agencies, provide data to The Work Number. Employment and payroll records are provided electronically to The Work Number each pay period, so you can be sure all data is current and authentic. And unlike a paper W-2 or paystub, The Work Number's records are employer-direct, reducing the potential for fraud and thereby mitigating your risk.

100% of Our Data Comes Direct From Employers.

How Fast Can You Expect Your Verifications When Using Our Complete Verification Solution?

A Single Source. Hundreds of Uses.

Consumer finance, pre-employment screening and mortgage are just a few of the industries that use The Work Number to speed up their verifications, reduce their costs and mitigate risk. And within each industry served, there are multiple uses. For example, the mortgage industry uses The Work Number during origination, refinancing, quality control and loan default. Imagine the multiple uses in your own organization and how you will benefit.

No matter your industry, your business, or whose employment needs to be verified, The Work Number delivers the verifications you need. Complete coverage...rapid results.
